MONEYS TO THE CONSIGNOR

Within 7 days after the sale, the consignee shall make an accounting to the consignor of all of the following: date of sale, repairs authorized by the consignor (supported by work records), an exact amount of any liens payable to lien holders, evidence of payment of any liens, and the total sales price.

Upon the sale of vehicle consignee(s) will receive the first total payment of the sale proceeds, which is agreed by the parties to be the "Net Sale Proceeds" or the adjusted "Net" agreed to by seller. Consignee may deduct from the Net Sale Proceeds due consignor(s) the following amounts: (i) all amounts due the Department of Motor Vehicles for unpaid license or registration fees or penalties associated with the vehicle and incurred while consignor(s) remain the registered owner of the vehicle; (ii) amounts due to lien holders holding a security interest in the vehicle; (iii) administrative fees due to Sell My Rig LLC (iv) repair charges to the vehicle authorized by consignor(s).

The consignee, Sell My Rig LLC, shall earn the difference in value between seller and consignee amounts. These amounts are agreed upon before the sale of the vehicle, and the seller price is final upon signature of this document.

Upon payment of the monies due to the consignor, the consignor agrees to furnish the dealer those documents necessary to transfer the ownership of the vehicle to the purchaser within 7 days of receiving monies due.
